SPECIAL MESSAGE

President Cleveland Sends a Communication to the House,

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.-The president Friday sent a special message to the house urging the necessity for immediate legislation to extend the limit of time within which suits can be brought by the gov enment to annul grants of public lands. He called attention to the numerous complications that had arisen between railroads as to grants that had overlapped and the necessity for adjustment. The time in which suits can be brought expires March 3, 1896, and if the time limit were allowed to expire then a portion of the adjustment act would be rendered nugatory. The government, the presi-dent says in conclusion, should not be prevented from going into the court and righting wrongs perpetrated by its agents

Free Home Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.-The house com mittee on public lands Friday decided to report to the house a free home bill prosed by Chairman Lacey of Iowa, which is practically a revival of the old home-stead laws.
